

PLAN CANADA TRANSFER OF COPYRIGHT AGREEMENT

I (We), the undersigned author(s), hereby convey to the Canadian Institute of Planners (CIP) all right, title and interest in and to copyright, in Canada and throughout the world, in the work entitled:

which is submitted for consideration of publication in Plan Canada, a magazine published by the Canadian Institute of Planners.

I (We) warrant the article and associated images to be original and that I (we) am (are) the sole author(s) and owner(s) of the said article and images and have full power to make this agreement and grant of copyright; that the said article contains no matter libellous or otherwise unlawful or which invades individual privacy or which infringes any proprietary right at common law or any statutory copyright; that I (we) will hold harmless and indemnify CIP against any and all suits, claims, demands or recoveries, including damages, costs, expenses, and attorney's fees, which may be made, taken, or incurred at any time by or against the CIP which are based upon any of the following allegations: invasion of privacy, violation of proprietary right or copyright, libellous or injurious matter contained in said article.

Should said article be published, the Canadian Institute of Planners will have the right to govern republication of this work, or any portion thereof, with the following exceptions, which I (we) retain specifically for myself (ourselves):

1. The right to re-use all or part of this material in a compilation of works of which I (we) am (are) the author(s) or editor(s);
2. The right to make further copies of all or part of the published work for my (our) own use in classroom teaching, and
3. The right to make copies of the published material for internal distribution within the institution or company which employs me (us).

I (We) agree that copies made under these circumstances will continue to carry the copyright notice which appeared in the original published work.
